Vivek Kumar Singh
2000290110191

Online shopping website

About Use Case-:

This use case diagram is of online shopping website. In this use case diagram their are 4 use cases View Items, Make Purchase, Client Register, Checkout.

1. View Items-: This use case is used by could be used by the customer, if customer only wants to find and see some products. This use case could also be the part of Make Purchase use case.
2. Client Register-: This use case allow the customer to register on the website
3. Checkout-: This use case is included use case not available by itself, it is the part of making purchase. Checkout use case includes several required use cases. Customer should be authenticated. It also includes payment use case which could be done either by using credit card or with paypal.
4. Make Purchase-: This use case allow the customer to purchase the items. This use includes View items and checkout use case in it. Customer can view the items and can checkout their selected items.

Diagram-: